5. The schools may, upon approval of the Superintendent, or his/her designee, cooperate with any governmental agency in promoting activities in the general public interest which are nonpartisan and non-controversial and which promote the education or other best interests of the pupils.
6. School publications may accept and publish paid advertising under established procedures, as for example, the student yearbook.
7. Promotional literature will not be distributed through the schools except for recognized educational and youth-oriented organizations, with prior approval of the Principal.
